Day 2, Thursday: Seoul (Lunch)

Start your tour today by visiting Dongdaemun Design Plaza which is one of Seoul's major urban development landmarks. Take a stroll at this culture complex with shops, galleries and many more! Head on to Cheonggye Steam Park where many famous cultural events like Seoul Lantern Festival are held. Continue towards Unhyeongung Palace which was the childhood home of the Emperor during the Joseon Dynasty. Relieve the past by enjoying traditional food with Korean traditional currency at Tong-in Traditional Market. Capture unforgettable memories at Trick Eye and Ice Museum, and Bukchon Hanok Village. Stroll alongside famous unique cafes, museums and antique shops at Samcheongdong Street.

Day 3, Friday: Seoul – Incheon – Seoul (Lunch)

Today, visit the Wolmido Island where you'll embark on a cruise and enjoy the sea breeze while feeding the seagulls. A must-see attraction on Wolmido Island is the theme park. It's not as large as other theme parks in Korea, but the Apollo Disco and the Viking rides are truly thrilling. When you reach at a vibrant rainbow-coloured gate, be welcomed by the Fairy Tale Village. It houses many paintings of famous fairy tales – great opportunity to take photos! End your tour at the infamous shooting spot for "Descendants of the Sun" – Central Park – where you can have a sip of coffee at "Dal Komm Café".

Day 4, Saturday: Seoul City Tour

Start your day towards Deuksu Palace (Photo Stop) where you may witness the daily guard changing ceremony. Move on to Namsam Hanok Village – the collection of five hanoks from the Joseon Dynasty. Make a stop to shop for Korean's Healthy Food like Ginseng, red pine and Korean Herbs. Have a shopping spree at Itaewon Shopping District filled with diverse nationalities and cultures. If Paris has the Champs-Élysées and Italy has Milan, Korea boasts Apgujeong and Cheongdam-dong. It is a leading area with luxury brands. Continue on to COEX Mall, cosmetic store at Seokpajeong and Duty-Free shop to shop till you drop!
